

Welcome to Cold Fusion Chalets, Europe's first and only provider of ski and snowboard holidays exclusively for individuals.

At Cold Fusion, we recognise that people are individuals and will provide you with more than just a snowboard holiday. We will provide an unforgettable experience with people who are likely to be your friends for years to come.

We are geared up to cater for you, the individual, and only you. We pride ourselves on providing the ultimate experience for snow-loving single socialities and the opportunity to meet other singles on a holiday where people communicate as 'I' and not 'we'.

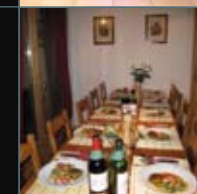

<< About Us >>

Chalet Flégère has been recently constructed to Cold Fusion's exacting standards with a modern and contemporary feel and is situated in a prime position in the area of les Praz, three minutes walk from the nearest lift station and within easy reach of town.

The chalet features twin bedrooms throughout (6/9 of which are ensuite), 3 spacious living/relaxation areas and a large dining area with a wood burning fire, from which guests can step out on to the balcony and admire the breathtaking views of the Mont Blan Massif.

Additional facilities include under-floor heating, WiFi broadband internet, satellite TV, PS2 and games, DVD player and a ski/boot room.

<< The Chalet >>

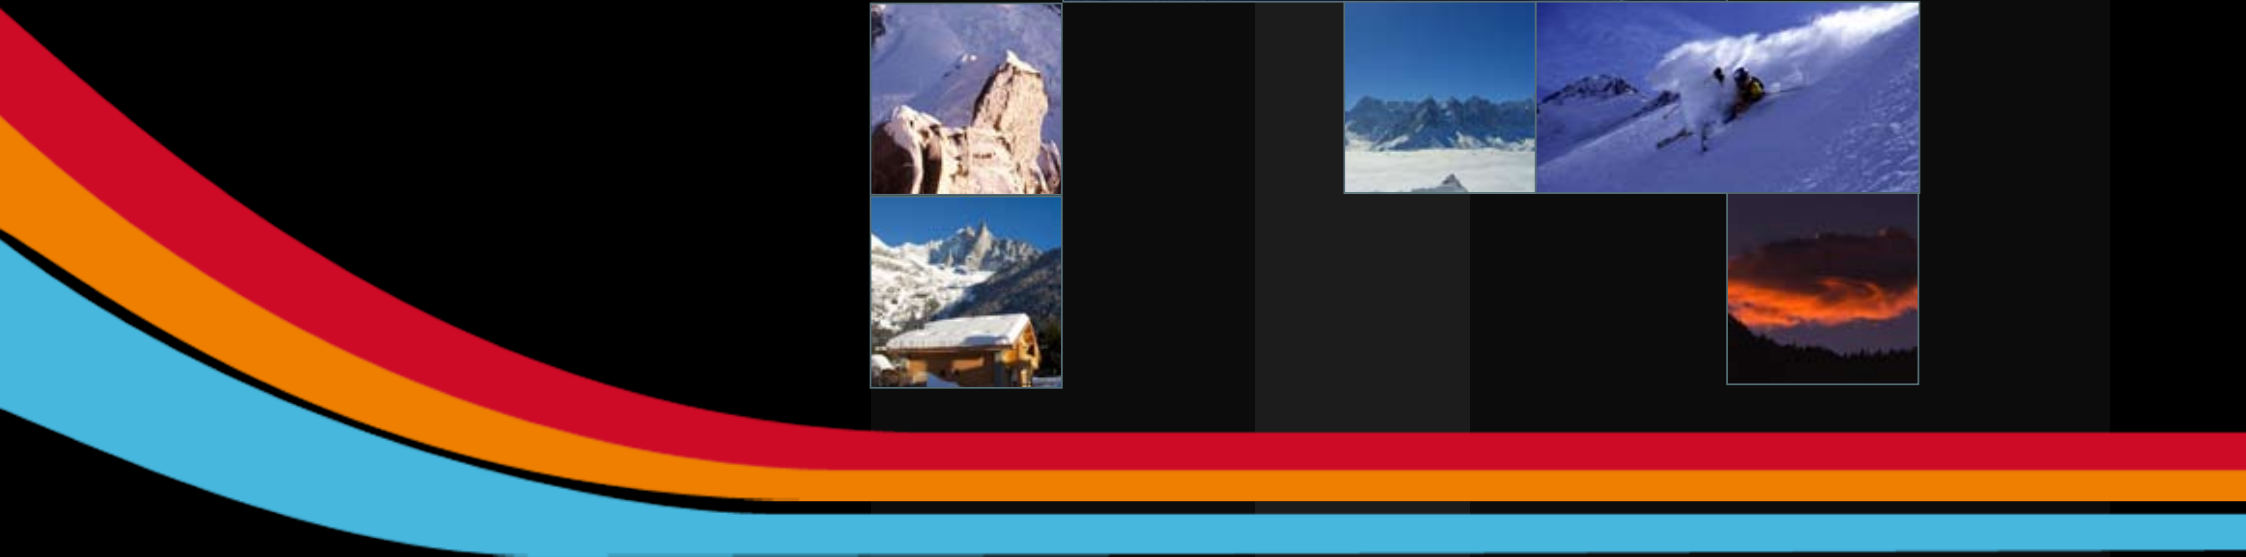

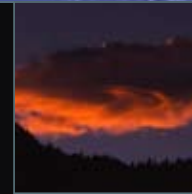

Situated at the base of Europe's highest mountain Mont Blanc (4810m) in the French Alps on the borders of Switzerland and Italy, Chamonix is one of the continent's largest and liveliest ski resorts.

Skiers and snowboarders are spoilt for choice with the offer of five domains, each boasting vast and varied terrain with something to suit everyone, whether beginner or pro.

For the more daring, the famous Aiguille du Midi is reached via Europe's longest cable car and marks the starting point for the spectacular descent along the Vallée Blanche.

<< Terrain >>

Chamonix boasts a wealth of facilities to keep everybody entertained, day and night. Highly reputed for its après ski, Chamonix is home to a multitude of bars and brasseries, offering a range of live music and entertainment.

Whether you fancy a cosy bar with a log fire and a glass of vin chaud, or a glass of local beer watching a lively band, you'll be spoilt for choice in this lively town. There are over 100 restaurants to be visited serving a range of delicacies at both lunchtime and during the evening. The majority of restaurants offer a set menu or a la carte options of cuisine from around the world. A number of shops are also located in the town centre, selling clothes, jewellery, food produce and sports equipment along with numerous other products.

<< Chamonix Town >>